

CO-OPERATION AGREEMENT

Between the Library & Information Service of the University of Patras
and
*the Library of Alexandria

The Library & Information Service of the University of Patras, represented by the Vice-Rector of the University of Patras, Professor George Stavropoulos, and the Library of Alexandria, represented by H.E. the Ambassador of the Arab Republic of Egypt in Greece, Dr. Magda Shahin, within the framework of the traditional friendship and cooperation between the people of Egypt and Greece, concluded the present Cooperation Agreement focused mainly on the following:

- Establishment and development of channels of communication between the two Libraries.
- Exchange of technical know-how on librarianship and information science.
- Information and exchange of publications edited or published by the two Libraries.
- Information and exchange of publications of the parent organizations of the Libraries.
- Exchange of personnel and participation in training workshops, seminars or conferences organised by the two Libraries.

The co-operation aims at the strengthening of the relations between the two Libraries and the enhancement of the mutual cultural understanding between the two nations.

The present Agreement shall become operational once signed, is effective for a period of ten years and is automatically renewed after its expiration, unless any of the two parties asks for its termination in writing, before the expiring date.

The correspondence regarding the application of the Agreement will be in English.

It was signed in Patras on the 2nd of December, 2003, in four copies.

For the University of Patras
The Vice - Rector
for Research and Educational Affairs

Professor George Stavropoulos

For the Library of Alexandria
H.E. the Ambassador
Of the Arab Republic of Egypt

Dr. Magda Shahin

